E-Version – July 2008

News & Events

- Libraries & Second Edition Closed on Independence Day

The Library & Second Edition will be closed Friday, July 4 for Independence Day.

- Annual Meeting

The 33rd Annual Meeting of the Cedar Mill Community Library Association will be on Tuesday, 7/15, 7:30 pm. Everyone is invited to attend. We will look at recent successes and challenges as well as preview the year ahead. Proposed By-Laws change: Move 2009 Annual Meeting to 3rd Tuesday in October. Board elections. Refreshments.

- Bethany's Birthday Bash

The Bethany branch of the Cedar Mill Community Library is celebrating one year of library service to the Bethany community! It's been a busy year filled with check-outs, check-ins, and lots of holds. The Bethany community has really embraced its new library. In celebration, you're invited to an afternoon of treats and magical entertainment with Ryan Thomas, a student magician who performs really "cool stuff!" Saturday, July 19, 2-4 pm. No registration required. Free.

- Catch the Reading Bug!

There is still time to come in to sign-up for our annual Summer Reading Program for babies, toddlers, preschoolers, school age children & teenagers. Both libraries are offering a variety of fun and interesting programs, all free of charge. Highlights of upcoming events:

- First Day to Claim Prizes – Tuesday, July 1.
- Wednesday mornings at St. Pius X Community Center, 10 am to 10:45 am. Sponsored by the Cedar Mill Community Library. No registration required.
  - Spin, Pop, Boom. July 9. Mad Science presents a science program about chemical reactions. For ages 5 & up.
  - Slugs, Bugs & Tales. July 16. Storyteller Christopher Leebrick captivates with tales of creepy crawlies and stories from his award-winning CDs.
