Our Goal: Reading for Families in Need

While there are no prize books available this year for safety reasons, we want to encourage everyone to read this summer. Every book read by 6th-12th graders contributes a 25¢ donation to families in need through the Oregon Food Bank. Our goal is to reach a $1,000 contribution from Cedar Mill and Bethany Community Libraries, which equals 4,000 books read.

What counts as reading?

- Books — fiction or non-fiction
- Listening to audiobooks
- Comics and graphic novels
- E-books
