ELIGIBILITY

- The library meeting rooms are available to non-commercial and non-profit community groups on a first-come, first-served basis. They may also be made available for land use review meetings and homeowners associations.
- All meetings must be free and open to the public. Rooms may not be used for private set attendee list groups, such as birthday and anniversary parties, weddings, baby showers, funerals, or other personal celebrations. Recitals, rehearsals, individual or group practice sessions and interviews are not permitted.
- No admission may be charged, or collection taken except to benefit CMBCL.
- Each group must consist of 6 or more people. Rooms are not to be used by individuals, for tutoring, or for commercial purposes.

- The meeting rooms are available to adults 18 years or older. Events for minors/students must be supervised by 2 adults, 1 of which must be over 21 years of age.
- CMBCL programs and sponsored events take precedence over other uses of the meeting rooms.
- CMBCL retains the right to use the meeting rooms for their own purposes at any time and will give reasonable notice if it is ever necessary to cancel or change a reservation.

RESERVATIONS

- Reservations for rooms will be made using an online system. An adult representative of the group must read and agree to the CMBCL Meeting Room Use Policy before making a reservation online. This individual will be responsible for knowing and following the regulations for the use of the room and equipment, including returning a completed attendance form, the room binder and key at the end of the room use and within the reservation time.
- Library staff will review and approve or deny all reservation requests based on the CMBCL Meeting Room Use Policy.
- Groups are allowed only one booking per month total between the two locations
- Reservations must be made at least 7 days in advance and up to 60 days in advance.
- Meeting rooms can be reserved for a maximum of 3 hours, which includes set-up and clean-up.
- The projector and screen are available for use. A remote control for the projector and HDMI cable are available for use. Groups are responsible for providing any other equipment they may need. Staff are not available to assist with equipment or technology needs.
- Public Wi-Fi is available.
- Notification of cancellation is requested at least 48 hours before the meeting or event. Failure to notify the library may result in the loss of meeting room privileges.

CONDITIONS OF USE

- The meeting rooms are available only during the CMBCL's standard operating hours. All meetings should conclude, and the room cleaned and ready for the next user by the end of the scheduled meeting time. All meetings must conclude, and the room vacated 30 minutes prior to library closing.
- The key for the meeting room is available at the library service desk. It is accompanied by a binder that includes meeting room and emergency instructions.
- Library staff must always have access to the meeting rooms.

- In publicizing a meeting to be held in a library meeting room, the sponsoring group must be clearly identified. The Cedar Mill & Bethany Libraries' name, address or phone number may not be used as the contact for the group.
- Library patrons are not a potential audience to be solicited and invited to events.
- Because CMBCL is a 501(c)(3) non-profit institution, the promotion or sale of any commercial entity, product, or service, as well as the solicitation of customers or clients, is prohibited.
- Storage for meeting materials is not available.
- The group's adult representative will remain in the room throughout the meeting and will make sure that the room is left clean and ready for the next user. A checklist will be provided for the meeting room used, with requirements for cleaning and closing the room, including returning tables and chairs to their original location, and disposing of all trash.
- Children must be directly supervised by adult participants and must remain in the meeting rooms throughout the meeting.
- Food, alcoholic beverages, the use of tobacco or cannabis products is not permitted on the premises. Use of open flames, incense, glitter, paint, or dye is also not allowed. The cost of cleaning up spills or other damage will be charged to the group using the room.
- The group assumes full responsibility for any damage to the meeting space.
- Groups may not hang signs, posters, displays or other decorations in the meeting rooms.
- The library is not responsible for theft of or damage to property brought into a library meeting room.
- Any group that violates the rules or instructions for the use of the Meeting Room, creates a disturbance of any kind or does not adhere to CMBCL's Behavior Policy may be barred from future use of the room.
