CEDAR MILL & BETHANY COMMUNITY LIBRARIES ASSOCIATION LIBRARY NEWS

VOLUME 50. NUMBER 2

June—August 2024

LIBRARY CELEBRATES 50TH ANNIVERSARY

A public library is an indication of a community's commitment to its members and their futures. The Cedar Mill Library was started by a group of neighbors who believed in the value of establishing a community library. They worked together to create the first nonprofit library in northwest Washington County. The impact of their efforts grew exponentially over the five decades since and benefited people throughout Washington County and beyond.

Located outside city boundaries, the Cedar Mill area does not have a city to develop a library. The group applied for nonprofit status as the Cedar Mill Community Library Association of Washington County in 1974. They then put on an ice cream social to invite locals to get involved. Cedar Mill residents donated books, volunteered and raised funds. By 1976, the Association had 220 members and most importantly, they had a library. Over the years the organization has continued to thrive as a community hub. Today the Association is grateful for the support of over 5,000 contributing members and the thousands of volunteers that have helped make Cedar Mill and Bethany Community Libraries possible.

50 YEARS OF COMMUNITY LIBRARY SERVICE

Cedar Mill Library History

Early advocates and volunteers were instrumental in coordinating and building the libraries that you know and love today. Odus Bales of Bales Thriftway provided the first space for the library. He and his descendants continue to lease space to the library and helped at each stage of expansion. Washington County Cooperative Library Services started shortly after Cedar Mill Library opened. Financial support from Washington County, combined with fundraising and the volunteer-supported Second Edition Resale Shop helped the library grow into one of the most heavily used libraries in Oregon.

LIBRARY HISTORY

In 2001, the library expanded into its current footprint. Private fundraising and support from Second Edition Resale provided $500,000 for interior improvements and furnishings.

Second Edition Resale started as an annual rummage sale call the M.E.S.S., which stood for Miscellaneous Etc. Super Sale. This popular event grew over time and opened as a year-round retail store in 1987. Today the shop brings in more than $300,000 a year in support of the libraries. Listen to the Library Founders Oral History interviews on the CMBCL podcast.

Bethany Library

The library association recognized the need for a second library to serve the fast-growing community between Cedar Mill and Hillsboro. After a fundraising campaign, the Bethany Library was opened in the Bethany Village Shopping Center in 2007. Demand was so great that the library moved across the street to a larger space in 2009. An annex was added nearby in 2019. The CMBCL Association has sights set on a larger space for the library in the future.

KIDS

A Focus on Children

Many of today's patrons remember growing up at Cedar Mill and Bethany Community Libraries. Supporting children's access to reading is a key element of the libraries' mission.

Storytime was among the first programs offered at the first Cedar Mill Library location in the 1970s. Library founders recognized the importance of storytime as critical to supporting early literacy skills and language development.

Decades later, library storytellers took to Zoom and YouTube during the pandemic shutdown. Grateful emails flooded in from parents whose kids enjoyed the live online sessions and replayed storytime videos on the libraries' social media channels.

USERS of the new Cedar Mill Community Library at 12565 NW Cornell Rd., are already checking out more than 100 books a day. Checkout privileges are free to any Oregon resident. Volunteer George Thurber and daughter Andrea look over the popular children's section. Book donations are still needed, especially children's story books and all kinds of "how-to" books. Library hours are 10 to 8 on Monday through Thursday and 10 to 5 on Friday and Saturday.

The libraries have also hosted storytimes in Spanish, Mandarin, Korean and Hindi.

As the Cedar Mill and Bethany communities grow and become more diverse, the libraries will continue to adapt programs and services to serve young patrons and their families.

Kids

Today the libraries offer over 900 programs to more than 35,000 children each year.

CMBCLA Mission: Provide our community an open door to the joy of reading, lifelong learning and personal enrichment, with emphasis on the literacy development of children.

VOLUNTEERS

A Community Effort

Thousands of community members have donated their time and dedication to the libraries over the past fifty years. It took a group of volunteer Cedar Mill residents to self-organize and lend their vision to make Cedar Mill and Bethany Community Libraries possible. Each new generation of volunteers is an integral part of the CMBCL legacy. The libraries are grateful for the many people who have contributed to the association over the last fifty years.

SUPPORT YOUR COMMUNITY LIBRARIES

Fundraiser Tables Arrive

Young library patrons are now enjoying the benefits of play-based learning at Cedar Mill and Bethany Libraries thanks to friends like you who donated close to $9,000 to purchase Discovery library tables.

Why is Your Community Libraries Association a Nonprofit?

Unlike neighboring municipal libraries that receive city taxpayer support, CMBCLA is a non-profit in an unincorporated area of the county. We depend on your support to provide library services to our community.
